Professor Ana Paula do Valle-Frias de Madureira e Piedade Dourado,

Associate Professor with Aggregation at the Law Faculty of the University of Lisbon.

VI. Assessment of applications:

1. After the application deadline, the Selection Committee meets, either in person or by telematic means, to verify the admission requirements of the applications, and to take measures to schedule interviews with eligible candidates, as stated in no. 4.
2. Applications that have been approved by the majority of the members of the Commission are accepted for candidature.
3. Candidates who are not approved will be notified within 5 working days, under the terms of the Administrative Procedure Code.
4. Once the candidates have been accepted for candidature they are called for interview by the Selection Committee, to be held in person or by telematic means, in cases where further clarification is deemed necessary.
5. Rather than awarding points, the interviews aim to clarify any doubts in order to ensure rigorous assessment according to the criteria and weightings mentioned above.
6. On completion of the interviews, if held, the Committee meets in person to evaluate and rank the candidates, producing a written report based on the final ranking of those candidates selected.
7. Each member of the Committee orders the applications in decreasing order of merit, assigning to each application an overall rating on the scale of 0 to 100, resulting from the sum of the partial ratings attributed to the weighted elements.
8. Ranking of the candidates is voted on by the members of the Committee, each member voting in accordance with their own ranking, except in cases where there is significant variance.
9. The final ranking of those candidates accepted is determined as follows:

a) The first ballot is to determine which candidate to rank first, and in this vote, if a candidate obtains more than half of the votes to be placed first, they shall be placed in that position;

b) If the situation referred to in the point above does not apply, a new ballot shall be held among those candidates who obtained votes for 1st position, after having withdrawn the candidate with the fewest votes for that position in the previous ballot;

c) If there is more than one candidate to withdraw due to an equal number of votes with a minimum of one vote each, a vote is taken only on these to determine which candidate to withdraw from the next ballot. In this vote, each member shall vote from among the candidates with equal votes holding the lowest position; in the case of a tie, the tie-breaker shall be made by the casting vote of the Chairperson of the Committee;

d) The voting shall be repeated until the first candidate is determined; if only two candidates are left, and each of them obtains half of the votes, the tie-breaker is made through the casting vote of the Chairperson of the Committee;

e) Once the candidate has been selected for first place, they are removed from the voting, and the whole process is repeated to determine the second place, and so on until the final list of candidates is obtained.

10. Only candidates with a rating equal to or higher than 50 are ranked, while those candidates with a rating lower than 50 are excluded, agreed to by an absolute majority of the members of the Committee.

11. Candidates who have not been selected for this call for applications shall be notified within 5 working days, under the terms of the Administrative Procedure Code.

12. After the initial hearing, the Selection Committee assesses the submissions and approves the final ranking of the selected candidates.
