

Margarida Lima Rego is full professor and dean of NOVA School of Law, NOVA University, Lisbon, where she has lectured regularly since 2005.

As an academic, she has taught different courses and published in a wide range of topics within Private Law, with a special focus on Contract Law. She is scientific coordinator of the School of Law's PhD Programme in Law and, until June 2022, she also coordinated its Master's in Law and Financial Markets, a degree that she founded in 2015. She is currently in charge of the course of Hard Cases (undergraduate), she is the holder of the Jean Monnet Module in EU Insurance Law: Challenges in the SDG Era (master's), and is responsible for the seminars on Private Law (PhD). Margarida Lima Rego is an active researcher at CEDIS, the School's R&D Unit, where she founded and coordinates the NOVA Knowledge Centre for Data-Driven Law.

Margarida's main areas of practice are civil and commercial law. She is Vice-President of the Board of Appeal of the European Supervisory Authorities, of which she has been a member since December 2021. Previously, she was Of Counsel to Morais Leitão, where she headed the insurance, reinsurance and pension funds cross-practice team, having left the firm in July 2019 to pursue her academic career on a full time basis. She is still an active legal consultant who is regularly sought on varied subject matters of Portuguese and Lusophone Law, having contributed to dispute resolutions before the courts of several jurisdictions in Europe, Africa and North and South America.

Margarida was a member of the Portuguese Bar between 2002 and 2019. Current positions include: President of AIDA Portugal; member of the Executive Committee and Scientific Committee of AIDA Europe; of the Scientific Committee of CILA; of the Presidential Council of AIDA World.
