

APPROVES THE REGULATIONS FOR THE
2ND CYCLE OF STUDIES
LEADING TO A MASTER'S DEGREE IN LAW.

NOVA School of Law
NOVA University, Lisbon

Regulation No. 736/2024

APPROVES THE REGULATIONS FOR THE 2ND CYCLE OF STUDIES LEADING TO A MASTER'S DEGREE IN LAW.

Faculty of Law, NOVA University Lisbon (NOVA School of Law)

In accordance with the proposal approved by the Scientific Council and the Pedagogical Council, the name of the specialisation in Public Law has been changed to Public Regulatory Law. This change was authorised by A3ES on 8 March 2023 and registered with the DGES under No. R/A-Ef 3196/2011/AL07 of 9 August 2023, in accordance with the provisions of Decree-Law No. 74/2006 of 24 March, as currently in force.

We would like to take this opportunity to clarify other aspects of the study programme leading to a Master's degree in Law, in particular the applicability of the NOVA School of Law Regulations on Course Requirements and the Regulations on the Assessment of Knowledge and Skills in the Non-Classroom Phase of Master's Programmes.

In view of these requirements, pursuant to Article 38 of Decree-Law No. 74/2006 (Legal Framework for Higher Education Degrees and Diplomas) of 24 March, and the Statutes of the NOVA School of Law (Order No. 9852/2022 of 9 August), having consulted the Scientific Council on 15 November 2023 and the Pedagogical Council on 22 November 2023, these Regulations are hereby approved by Rector's Order of 22 May 2024, amending Regulation No. 495/2022 of 23 May.

24 November 2023. — The Dean, Prof. (PhD) Margarida Lima Rego.

CHAPTER I

Objectives, academic field and duration

ARTICLE 1.º

Aims of the programme

1 — The Master's Degree in Law, hereinafter referred to as the MD, is designed to provide graduates from any academic discipline with an interdisciplinary education in law that is both specialised and comprehensive.

2 — The general objectives of the MD are:

- a) To develop and deepen the fundamental knowledge acquired during the first cycle of legal studies;
- b) The acquisition of in-depth knowledge in specific fields of law;
- c) Preparation for professional life;
- d) The acquisition of skills that enable lifelong learning;
- e) The development of research skills.

ARTICLE 2º

Scientific field

1 — The programme falls within the scientific field of Law.

2 — The Master's in Law is offered in the following areas of specialisation: International and European Law (120 ECTS); Public Regulatory Law (120 ECTS); Business Law and Technology (120 ECTS); Social Law Innovation (120 ECTS); Private Law (120 ECTS).

3 — In each academic year, the Academic Board may decide to offer all or only some of the specialisations.

ARTICLE 3º

Duration of the programme

1 — The course lasts four semesters, the first two of which are academic, whilst the last two are devoted to the preparation of a dissertation, project or work placement report.

2 — Successful completion of the first two semesters leads to the award of a diploma in 'Postgraduate Studies in Law', specifying the area of specialisation.

CHAPTER II

Entry requirements, curriculum structure, study plan and credits

ARTICLE 4.º

Entry requirements for the programme

1 — The following may enrol on the Master's degree programme in Law:

- a) Holders of a bachelor's degree or its legal equivalent;
- b) Holders of a foreign higher academic qualification awarded following a first-cycle programme organised in accordance with the principles of the Bologna Process by a State party to that Process;
- c) Holders of a foreign higher education qualification recognised by the School's Scientific Council as meeting the requirements for a bachelor's degree;
- d) Holders of an academic, scientific or professional background recognised by the School's Scientific Council as demonstrating the ability to undertake this course of study.

2 — The School's competent bodies set the number of students to be admitted and the admission criteria annually, and may establish other specific conditions and preferential requirements for entry onto the course.

3 — The ranking criteria to be established must be objective, based solely on the merit and quality of the candidates, and must be set out in the call for applications.

ARTICLE 5.º

Curriculum structure and credits

1 — The curriculum structure and credits are set out in Annex I to these regulations.

2 — In each academic year, the Academic Board may reduce the list of optional modules or add others that meet the general objectives of the Master's degree.

CHAPTER III

Enrolment

ARTICLE 6.º

Elective modules

1 — Enrolment in restricted-choice and free-choice modules is carried out on a module-by-module basis, in accordance with the terms and deadlines set by the School Management, via the channels publicised each academic year by the Academic Services Department.

2 — The School Management may set a maximum number of enrolments for any optional module, as well as make the running of any such module conditional upon a minimum number of enrolments.

3 — For first-semester modules where the number of enrolled students exceeds the set limit, priority is given to students from the module's area(s) of specialisation and, amongst these, to those with the highest undergraduate degree grade; for second-semester modules, priority is given to students who have passed all first-semester modules and, amongst these, to those with the highest average mark in those modules.

4 — Students who have previously been enrolled in the module but did not sit the assessment are not eligible for priority.

ARTICLE 7.º

Limitation period for the right to enrol

The right to enrolment lapses in accordance with the time limits and terms set out in the Regulations on Limitation Periods of the NOVA School of Law (Regulation No. 1037/2023).

CHAPTER IV

Academic calendars and timetables

ARTICLE 8.º

Duration of the semester

The effective duration of each academic semester is, as a rule, nineteen weeks, including an examination period lasting a maximum of five weeks.

ARTICLE 9.º

School calendar

The school calendar is generally based on the following model:

- a) Academic year: 15 September to 31 July;
- b) 1st term: September to December;
- c) First-term examinations: January/February;
- d) Second term: February to May;
- e) Second-semester examinations: June/July.

ARTICLE 10.º

Timetable

1 — Before the start of each academic term, the Dean, in consultation with the Pedagogical Council, shall publish the timetable for each subject.

2 — Classes for the modules will be held at mixed times (during and after working hours); however, the Management may decide that the Master's programme should be taught on a daytime basis or exclusively after, should demand figures indicate that such a change would be advisable, or following consultation with the Scientific Council and the Pedagogical Council.

ARTICLE 11.º

Examination timetable

The timetable for examinations in each examination period shall be set by the Dean, after consultation with the Pedagogical Council, no later than 60 days before the start of the examinations.

CHAPTER V

Teaching methods

ARTICLE 12.^o

Lessons

- 1 — Classes are a combination of theory and practice, tailored to the nature of each subject, and follow a dialogue-based model in which students actively participate; they may include practical exercises, lectures and seminars.
- 2 — Where the number of students and the nature of the subject allow, classes may be conducted in a seminar format.
- 3 — Courses are taught in Portuguese or English.

ARTICLE 13.^o

Curriculum Programmes/Course Descriptions

- 1 — The teaching of each course unit shall comply with the information set out in the relevant Course Unit Description, in accordance with the accreditation granted to the Master's programme, which includes a definition of the learning objectives, the syllabus, the teaching and assessment methods, and the recommended reading list; the relevant guidelines must be followed.
- 2 — The Course Unit Description is drawn up and amended by the lecturer responsible for the module by the end of the previous academic year.
- 3 — The Master's programme coordinators must approve the Course Unit Description before the start of the academic year.
- 4 — At the start of each academic year, the Pedagogical Council reviews the Course Unit Description and approves any recommendations it deems appropriate.
- 5 — Course syllabuses are published in the student portal and in the University's information guide.

ARTICLE 14.^o

Absences and substitutions

The total number of classes per semester must be strictly adhered to; in the event of a justified absence, the course coordinator must arrange for a replacement or deliver additional classes to make up for those that could not be held.

ARTICLE 15.^o

Summaries

After each class, the course coordinator shall enter the relevant summary into the School's academic management system, indicating the material covered, in accordance with the syllabus, or a summary of the work carried out.

ARTICLE 16.^o

Self-assessment

1 — The School establishes the methods for the regular self-assessment of the teaching provided and publishes the results periodically.

2 — The Pedagogical Council is responsible for monitoring compliance with the provisions of the preceding articles and for issuing the necessary guidelines.

CHAPTER VI

Assessment of knowledge

SECTION I - Academic Semesters

ARTICLE 17.^o

Enrolment

1 — Regular enrolment on the module in the semester in which it is taught is a prerequisite for sitting final assessment examinations.

2 — The Academic Services Office automatically admits students enrolled on the module in the semester in which it is taught to sit these examinations, without any formalities.

3 — Lecturers must not mark the examinations of students who do not appear on the relevant examination lists.

ARTICLE 18.^o

Assessment

Assessment is carried out in accordance with Regulation No. 357/2020 and Regulation No. 1126/2020 of 29 December 2020.

ARTICLE 19.^o

Anti-plagiarism declaration

In all written work submitted for assessment, including the dissertation, students must declare that the text submitted is entirely their own work and that any use of other people's contributions or texts is duly referenced.

SECTION II - Non-teaching period

ARTICLE 20.^o

Non-taught phase assignment

The non-teaching phase of the Master's degree is governed by the Regulations on the Assessment of Knowledge and Skills in the Non-Teaching Phase of Master's Degrees (Regulation No. 27/2024).

CHAPTER VII

Master's degree

ARTICLE 21.^o

Award of the Master's degree

1 — The Master's degree is awarded to students who, having passed all course modules in accordance with the approved and registered study plan, and having met the conditions for progression to the non-taught component of the Master's programme, in accordance with Article 2 of the Regulations on the Assessment of Knowledge and Skills in the Non-Classroom Phase of Master's Programmes (Regulation No. 27/2024), have successfully completed their dissertation, project work or placement report.”

2 — The final mark for the Master's degree is calculated using the formula set out in Article 5(6) of Regulation 1126/2020.

ARTICLE 22.^o

Issue of the degree certificate, the diploma supplement and certificates

1 — The degree certificate and the diploma supplement shall be issued by 31 December of the calendar year in which the student completes the second cycle, provided that the student applies for them by 31 August of that same year.

2 — Once the degree has been registered, certificates confirming completion of the course are issued within a maximum of 10 working days of receipt of the duly completed and paid application.

3 — The course certificate and diplomas must include: the student's full name; identity document number; name of the course; degree awarded; final numerical grade; and the course completion date.

ARTICLE 23.^o

Scientific Committee and scientific co-ordinators

1 — The MD has a single Scientific Committee, to which are added the scientific coordinators for each specialisation, acting as an overarching body to unify and standardise criteria and guidelines.

2 — The Scientific Committee is responsible for:

- a) To analyse and rank applications for the MD;
- b) To ensure the smooth running of the MD and the maintenance of high standards of quality in the teaching provided and in the support given to students throughout their studies, with each member having their own area of responsibility in order to ensure the efficient management of the various stages of teaching and learning;
- c) To consider complaints and reports relating to the operation of the MD;
- d) To promote all forward-looking analysis initiatives that enable an objective and systematic assessment of whether to maintain or modify the range of courses on offer, proposing any curricular changes deemed appropriate, in line with the objectives of the study programme and its acceptance/demand;

e) To consider proposals for topics and research directions submitted by students at the start of the non-teaching term;

f) Propose to the Director the examination boards for the public assessment of dissertations, placement reports or project work, where such authority is delegated by the Scientific Council, in accordance with Article 25(3).

CHAPTER VIII

Final provisions

ARTICLE 24.^o

Tuition fees

Tuition fees are set annually by the competent bodies and published in the tuition fee notice.

ARTICLE 25.^o

Funding

The Master's degree in Law is funded by its own revenue derived from tuition fees or other legitimate sources.

ARTICLE 26.^o

Cheating

Any fraud in assessment examinations shall result in their annulment, and this must be reported to the Management for disciplinary purposes.

ARTICLE 27.^o

Entry into force

These regulations shall come into force for students enrolled from the 2023/2024 academic year onwards.

*ARTICLE 28ºRepeal

1 — These regulations repeal Regulation No. 495/2022 of 3 May 2022, published in the Diário da República on 23 May 2022.

2 — Articles 20 to 27 of the regulation referred to in the previous paragraph shall remain in force for students enrolled up to the 2023/2024 academic year.

24 November 2023. — The Dean, Margarida Lima Rego.
